Withdrawal of Internal market assistance on Jute goods

*675. SHRI SANGH PRIYA GAUTAM: Will the Minister of TEXTILES be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government have withdrawn the Internal Market Assistance (IMA) on jute goods and propose to revise the norms for External Market Assistance (EMA);

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) whether Government have assessed its likely impact on jute industry, and

(d) if so, the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF TEXTILES (SHRI G. VENKAT SWAMY): (a) to (d) The Internal Market Assistance (IMA) and the External Market Assistance (EMA) Schemes were introduced to promote the markets of diversified jute products in the domestic and export markets respectively. The Schemes were not intended to be continued indefinitely. IMA was withdrawn in May, 1993 after assessing that the diversified jute products have been able to make their position in the domestic market and the purpose of the Scheme has been achieved. After examining the various aspects relating to marketing of diversified jute products in the export market a revised EMA Scheme has been notified w.e.f. 1.4.95 which will be effective for a period of two years, i.e. upto 31.3.97.
